Ten freshman education students at the University of Dayton are studying in the two-year cadet program of elementary teacher preparation under Ohio State Department of Education scholarships, it was announced. Friday. (Nov. 2)

They are June Israel, 5541 Grantford rd., graduate of Julianne high school; Donna Lewis, 730 Webster st., Kiser graduate; Mary Sell, 3035 Snyder rd., Madison Township graduate;

Patricia Lewis of Miamisburg, Ellen Dietrich of Laura, Sandra Feters of Arcanum, Anita King and Carole Limes of Xenia;

Barbara Wolke of Reading, and Delyte Kessler of Columbus.

The scholarships, with a maximum value of $500 annually, were awarded through the state-wide scholarship committees under the chairmanship of county superintendents. The scholarships were designed to help supply a sufficient number of capable teachers to meet the expanded enrollments in elementary schools.
